DETAILED ACTION

Priority

On page 1, lines 5-6, referring to the application as a continuation of a provisional application is improper. A suggested correction is "This application claims the benefit of U.S. Provisional Application No. 60/416,906, filed October 8, 2002."

Drawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the envelope defined in claim 10 (assuming the applicant means a traditional type of envelope) must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Objections

Claims 1-4 are objected to because of the following informalities: In claim 1, lines 4-5 and 7-8, and claim 2, line 1, "the positively feelings" should apparently be "the positive feeling" in order to be consistent with line 1. In claim 1, line 5, "the recipient" should be "a recipient" since there is no antecedent basis for "the recipient". Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 1-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, line 2, "such as love" is indefinite since the metes and bounds of the claim can not be determined. In claim 1, line 3, "such as a package" is indefinite since the metes and bounds of the claim can not be determined. In claim 5, line 5, there is no antecedent basis for "the good feelings". In claims 6-8 and 10, line 1, there is no antecedent basis for "The device".

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ledman et al. (U.S. Patent No. 4,194,629) in view of Kough (U.S. Patent No. 5,568,695).

Ledman et al. shows in figures 1-2 a package (11,12) that includes a note (15) having indicia thereon. Ledman et al. does not specifically state whether the note is placed on the package and the specific message placed on the note defined in claims 1 and 5. Kough shows in figure 10 the idea of placing a note (60) on a package (44). In view of the teachings of Kough it would have been obvious to one in the art to modify Ledman et al. by placing the note directly on the package since this would make it clear that the note belongs with the package, would help to prevent the note and package from being separated, and would allow the message on the note to be clearly seen. Ledman et al. does not disclose the specific message (request that the package remain unopened) defined by the applicant in claims 1 and 5. It would have been an obvious to one in the art to modify Ledman et al. by varying the message on the note since it is considered obvious to place any message on the note as desired, i.e. the particular indicia placed onto the note is not considered to be a patentable feature. In regard to claim 2, the feeling of love is identified in the note of Ledman et al. In regard to claims 3 and 7, it is considered obvious to place any message as desired on the note, i.e. the particular indicia placed onto the note is not considered to be a patentable feature. In regard to claims 4 and 9, Ledman et al. does not disclose placing wrapping paper around the package. Kough shows in figure 10 the idea of placing wrapping paper (42) around a package (44). In view of the teachings of Kough it would have been obvious to one in the art to modify Ledman et al. by placing wrapping paper around the package since this would allow the package to be given to a recipient as a gift in a more aesthetically pleasing and surprising manner. In regard to claim 6, Ledman et al. shows in figure 1 that the package is a closed package. In regard to claim 8, as broadly defined, the package of Ledman et al. is considered to be a "gift-style container". In regard to claim 10, as broadly defined, the package of Ledman et al. is considered to be envelope since it is something that envelops, see Webster's II New Riverside Dictionary which defines envelope as something that envelops.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Perry and Savage teach the use of prewrapped boxes. Stone and Cole teach the use of boxes that include a card attached thereto.
